Court and procedure

- Actual case or ripeness. A bill, draft IRR, proposal or mere threat is not ripe (Montesclaros; Lozano; PACU).
- Mootness and its exceptions. A supervening event ends the controversy; four exceptions (grave violation, exceptional character, guiding principles, capable of repetition yet evading review).
- Standing. Citizen, taxpayer, voter, legislator, association or third party, environmental; transcendental importance.
- Remedy and forum. Rule 65 in the SC versus RTC; COMELEC versus HRET/SET/PET; hierarchy of courts; COA for money claims.

Separation of powers

How the law was made

- Title and one subject. Germane to the title; no hodgepodge or surprise (Lidasan; Giron).
- Origination in the House. Appropriation, revenue and tariff bills, public debt, local and private bills; the bill, not the law, originates (Tolentino).
- Riders and inappropriate provisions. GAA provisions must relate to a particular appropriation (Sec. 25(2); Philconsa v. Enriquez).

- Journal, enrolled bill and bicameral reports. Enrolled bill conclusive; bicameral report approved by both Houses; urgency certification.

Inherent powers

- Police power. Lawful subject and lawful means; LGU ordinances must also be consistent with law.
- Regulation or taking. Appropriating property or its use for the public needs just compensation (Ericta; PPI v. TELEBAP).
- Non-impairment of contracts and franchises. Yields to a valid exercise of police power; franchises are never exclusive (Iloilo I).
- State immunity and money claims. Suit against the State? Consent? Jure imperii; claims go to COA.

People and territory

- Residence (domicile). Physical presence plus intent to remain; abandonment of the old domicile.
- Suffrage: qualifications versus registration. Art. V qualifications cannot be added; registration rules valid if reasonable (Kabataan; Palatino; AKBAYAN).

The Constitution itself

- Amendment or revision. Modes and votes under Art. XVII; initiative only for amendments (Lambino); Congress means both Houses.
